Who is Al-Abga' mentioned in the prophecy?

٨٣٣ - حدثنا الحكم بن نافع عن جراح عن أرطاة قال إذا اجتمع الترك والروم وخسف بقرية بدمشق وسقط
طائفة من غربي مسجدها رفع بالشام ثلاث رايات الأبقع والأصهبوالسفياني ويحصربدمشق رجل فيقتل ومن معه
ويخرج رجلان من بني سفيان فيكون الظفر للثاني فإذا أقبلت مادة الأبقع من مصر ظهرالسفياني بجيشهعليهم فيقتل
الترك والروعم بقرقيسيا حتى تشبع سباع الأرض من لحومهم

"Al-Hakam ibn Nafi' narrated to us, from Jarrah, from Artat (Arta'ah), who said: 'When the Turks and the Romans gather together, and a village in Damascus is swallowed up (by the earth), and a part of the western side of its mosque collapses, then three banners will be raised in al-Sham: the banner of al-Abqa', the banner of al-As'hab, and the banner of al Sufyani. A man will be besieged in Damascus and he and those with him will be killed. Then two men from the descendants of Abu Sufyan will emerge, and victory will belong to the second of them. When reinforcements of al-Abqa' come from Egypt, al-Sufyani will appear with his army against them. He will kill the Turks and the Romans at Qarqisiya until the beasts of the earth are filled from their flesh.'"

Al-Abga' (أبقع) = Spotted, Splatter from paint

In classical Arabic, abqaʿ literally means something like:

- "spotted"
- "speckled"
- "patchy-colored"
- "piebald"

Google Images بقع

The Abga is said to be from Egypt, and no it's not sisi but it's actually someone close to him. It's a politician by the name of Sedki Sobhy (Look at the "splatter on his head")

There's actually a prophecy that states both the leaders of egypt and syria will both be killed. I believe the man above will be the one to succeed sisi
